Diagram illustrating the piano accompaniment for the first four measures of the Londonderry Air (Danny Boy) Chords. The diagram shows a four-staff system. The top staff is empty. The second staff contains red blocks labeled 'C' and 'C'' in the first measure, and a red block labeled 'C'' in the fourth measure. The third staff contains a green block labeled 'B<sup>b</sup>' in the second measure, with a brown dot and a blue dot below it. The bottom staff contains black blocks labeled 'G' in the first measure, 'G'' in the third measure, and blue blocks labeled 'F' and 'F'' in the second, third, and fourth measures respectively. Arrows and colored dots (green, brown, blue, grey) indicate fingerings and accents.

Four empty rectangular boxes stacked vertically, likely for notes or chord symbols.

A blue rectangular block labeled 'F'.
