

My Bonnie Lies over the Ocean Melody

Piano

The image shows three staves of piano figure notes. Each staff consists of five horizontal lines representing the piano keyboard. The notes are represented by various colored circles and rectangles. In the first staff, there are two white circles on the top line, followed by a green circle, a yellow circle, a black circle, another black circle, a grey circle, and two brown circles on the bottom line. Below the staff, there is a green bracket-like shape. In the second staff, there are two black circles, a blue circle, and a yellow rectangle spanning the middle two lines. There is also a yellow curved arrow pointing from the blue circle to the yellow rectangle. Below this staff is a green bracket-like shape. In the third staff, there are two grey circles, two blue circles with arrows pointing to them, and a long black rectangle spanning the middle three lines. Below this staff is a brown bracket-like shape. The staves are separated by vertical lines.

My Bonnie Lies over the Ocean Melody

Piano

