March of the Kings Bass Line

Piano

A musical staff with four measures. The first three measures contain brown figure notation: a vertical bar on the first line, a horizontal bar on the second line, and a vertical bar on the second line. The fourth measure contains red figure notation: a vertical bar on the second line, a horizontal bar on the second line, and a vertical bar on the second line. There are two curved lines under the horizontal bars in the first three measures. A large black 'X' is located below the fourth measure.

An empty musical staff with four measures. A large black 'X' is located at the bottom left corner, overlapping the first measure.
