

Beginning and end part

Piano

The piano part is represented by four rows of musical notation. Each row consists of a staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The notes are represented by colored circles with stems, where the color indicates the pitch and the stem indicates the rhythm. The first row contains five measures: Measure 1 is empty; Measure 2 has a black note (quarter note); Measure 3 has a blue note (quarter note); Measure 4 has a brown note (quarter note) and a red note (quarter note); Measure 5 has a black note (quarter note), a blue note (quarter note), a brown note (quarter note), and a red note (quarter note). The second row contains five measures: Measure 1 has a black note (quarter note) and a blue note (quarter note); Measure 2 has a black note (quarter note) and a yellow note (quarter note); Measure 3 has a black note (quarter note) and a black note (quarter note); Measure 4 has a blue note (quarter note) and a blue note (quarter note); Measure 5 has a black note (quarter note) and a blue note (quarter note). The third row contains five measures: Measure 1 has a brown note (quarter note) and a red note (quarter note); Measure 2 has a black note (quarter note) and a blue note (quarter note); Measure 3 has a brown note (quarter note) and a red note (quarter note); Measure 4 has a black note (quarter note) and a yellow note (quarter note); Measure 5 has a green note (quarter note) and a yellow note (quarter note), with a small black arrow pointing to the green note. The fourth row contains five measures: Measure 1 has a black note (quarter note) and a black note (quarter note); Measure 2 has a blue note (quarter note) and a blue note (quarter note); Measures 3, 4, and 5 are empty.
